Suspension of Work in the District of Columbia

Observance of Christmas Day and New Year's Day
Thursday, December 23 through Saturday, December 25, 2021
Thursday, December 30 through Saturday, January 1, 2022

In observance of Christmas Day and New Year's Day, and pursuant to section 103.01 Article 17 item C of the District's Standard Specifications for Highways and Structures, there will be a suspension of work in the District from 12 p.m., Thursday, December 23 through Saturday, December 25, 2021, and from 12 p.m., Thursday, December 30 through Saturday, January 1, 2022. Lane closures and work zones will not be allowed for non-emergency work in roadways, alleys and sidewalks within the District's right of way. This includes manhole access and construction-related deliveries.

Approved safe-distancing activities may resume Monday, December 27, 2021, and Monday, January 3, 2022, respectively during permitted work hours.

Per the District Department of Transportation (DDOT)'s standard practice, exemptions will not be allowed during this suspension of work. If you have any questions related to this extended work schedule, feel free to contact Stacey Collins, Chief of Public Space Inspections and Enforcement, via email at stacey.collins@dc.gov.

Any other questions can be directed to Public Space Regulation Division's Customer Relations Branch at (202) 442-4670 or email crb.services@dc.gov.

Thank you.

The District Department of Transportation (DDOT) is committed to ensuring that no person is excluded from participation in, or denied the benefits of, its projects, programs, activities, and services on the basis of race, color, national origin, gender, age, or disability as provided by Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Americans with Disabilities Act and other related statutes.

In accordance with the D.C. Human Rights Act of 1977, as amended, D.C. Official Code sec. 2-1401.01 et seq. (Act), the District of Columbia does not discriminate on the basis of actual or perceived: race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, marital status, personal appearance, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, familial status, family responsibilities, matriculation, political affiliation, genetic information, disability, source of income, status as a victim of an interfamily offense, or place of residence or business. Sexual harassment is a form of sex discrimination, which is prohibited by the Act. In addition, harassment based on any of the above-protected categories is prohibited by the Act. Discrimination in a violation of the Act will not be tolerated. Violators will be subject to disciplinary action.
